FORMAT

Pursuant to page 20 of the Administrative Regulations for Court Reporting Services in the Illinois Courts dated July 1, 2023, the format of transcripts shall meet the following minimum standards:

(1) Type size shall not be less than nine characters per inch and consistent with local requirement, if any.

(2) A page shall be 8½ x 11 inches and contain a minimum of 24 lines of type.

(3) Lines shall be double spaced, pre-numbered on the left-hand margin.

(4) The left margin shall be 1½ inch and the right margin shall be ¾ inch from the edge of the paper to the text (NOT the text box). Unnecessary indentations and blank spaces shall be avoided.

(5) There should be no more than five spaces before Q or A, and no more than 10 spaces before a new paragraph.

An index page on a transcript shall only be required if there are witnesses or exhibits within the transcript.

When provided in a printed format, transcripts shall follow the following guidelines. If the entire transcript will not exceed 250 pages, it may be bound as one volume. If the transcript exceeds 250 pages, it shall be bound into two or more volumes of approximately equal size, not exceeding 250 pages each. Each volume will have a sturdy front and rear cover. The front cover shall contain the title and number of the case, the name of the judge who entered the order being appealed from, if any, the name and title of the CRS employee(s) who prepared the transcript, license or restricted license number(s), if applicable, and a notation indicating the volume number and pages contained therein (e.g. "Volume 1 of 2 volumes, page 1 through 250; "Volume 2 of 2 volumes, pages 251 through 500").

Any text in the formbook that is bolded and capitalized is intentional; therefore, the title and certificate pages should reflect such.

1 Transcripts may be bound on the left margin or on top
2 depending on local customs. The covers and binding
3 material may vary depending upon local customs.
4 Transcripts being sent to the Department of Corrections
5 are exempt from front and rear cover requirements unless
6 it may be accomplished without metal components.

7 At the request of any party, a standard page in 8 compliance with these format regulations may be reduced to 9 a condensed format. The employee shall be entitled to the 10 per page rate for each standard page, regardless of the 11 number of pages that are condensed on a single page.

12 Upon the written request of any party, a CRS employee
13 may also provide a keyword index; except when billed to 14 the state or the county, the employee may charge up to the 15 allowed page rate for the index. All efforts should be
16 made to eliminate common words to keep the fees reasonable
17 for this service.

18 All orders for condensed versions or keyword indexes
19 should be in writing and acknowledged by the CRS employee
20 upon receipt.

21 All transcripts which will be provided to the Clerk
22 of the Circuit Court must be in electronic format and/or 23 printed on white or lightly colored paper. Security
24 paper, or any other paper which would prevent legible reproduction, is prohibited. Likewise, any electronic transcript file submitted to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for the purpose of appeal shall not be password-protected in any manner.

TRANSCRIPTS IN ELECTRONIC FORMAT

Transcripts in Electronic File Format (e-filing) pursuant to the Illinois Supreme Court's mandatory electronic filing (e-filing) initiative, effective July 1, 2017, CRS employees must be able to transmit an electronic copy of the report of proceedings to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for the purpose of appeals in PDF format. A party or attorney may also request, for his or her own use, a transcript in electronic file format. A certification page with an embedded digital or electronic signature may be provided in lieu of an original signature.

The amount charged by the employee for a transcript of court proceedings shall conform to the page rate as directed by the Uniform Schedule of Charges for Transcripts.

INDEX PAGE

Each transcript should have an index page showing witnesses' names, the nature of the testimony, and page numbers. The index page immediately follows the title page. If your circuit requires, the index should also indicate where exhibits have been marked for identification and introduced into evidence.

The reporter should strive to limit the index page to one sheet or, when absolutely necessary, to two. It is permissible to deviate on the index page only from double-line spacing to single-line spacing in order to place the entire index on one page.

The following are two sample index pages. As a reminder, an index page on a transcript shall only be included if there are witnesses and exhibits within the transcript.

INTERPRETER

A unique situation is created for the reporter when an interpreter is used to translate for a non-English speaking witness or hearing-impaired witness.

Prior to the appropriate witness setup, an interpreter setup should be used, as well, indicating that the interpreter was sworn to translate all questions and answers and statements by the witness, court, and counsel.

The normal Q and A format is followed eliminating the foreign language questions and answers and showing the English translation answer as if the witness answered in English.

If the interpreter deviates from a literal translation and says, "He said his name is Jose Rodriguez," indicate the interpreter speaking rather than the witness by indicating:

THE INTERPRETER: He said his name is Jose Rodriguez.

When first person answers resume, return to Q and A.

If the witness answers in English, indicate the witness speaking in English:

Q. Did you go to the store?

THE WITNESS: Yes, I did.

THE INTERPRETER: Yes, I did.

INTERPRETER SETUP

MARIA GOMEZ,

official court interpreter, was duly sworn to translate for Jose Rodriguez, ^Petitioner ^Respondent ^Plaintiff ^Defendant, from English to ^sign ^Spanish and from ^sign ^Spanish to English to the best of ^his ^her ability.

INTERPRETER-WITNESS SETUP

JOSE RODRIGUEZ,

called as a witness on behalf of the People, being first duly sworn, was examined and testified through a ^Spanish-language interpreter ^sign interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. What is your name?

A. Jose Rodriguez.

Q. Where do you live?

THE INTERPRETER: He says he lives in Guadalajara, Mexico.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. Where do you live now?

A. In Chicago, Illinois.

THE INTERPRETER: He was confused.

MR. BROWN: Okay.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q. How old are you?

A. 25.

QUOTED MATERIAL

When an attorney is reading Questions and Answers from a deposition into the record, it is recommended that the quoted material be surrounded by quotes and each line be indented 15 spaces.

Q. And were you asked this question and did you give this response at that time:

"Question: Did you see him immediately following the accident?

"Answer: Yes, I did."

- OR -

MR. JONES: Well, Your Honor, in his deposition he gave the following response to the question:

"Question: Did you see him immediately following the accident?

"Answer: Yes, I did."

If the attorney does not read the words "Question" and "Answer" but merely reads the material in paragraph form, it is recommended that this material not be indented but transcribed as part of the Question or colloquy, whichever may apply.

Q. And were you asked this question and did you give this response at that time: "Did you see him immediately following the accident? Yes, I did."?

- OR -

MR. JONES: Well, Your Honor, in his deposition, and I quote, the question and answer was: "Did you see him immediately following the accident? Yes, I did."
